

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR PRO BONO RECOGNITION LIST OF ENGLAND & WALES

Who is responsible for your personal data?

Your personal data is controlled by the Steering Group of the Attorney General's Pro Bono Committee (“we”, “us”, “our”)

What personal data will we collect?

We will collect and process your personal data, including:

- Your full name
- Number of pro bono legal work hours you have completed.

Why are we processing your personal data?

We are processing your personal data to compile the Pro Bono Recognition List of England & Wales which aims to list the names of solicitors and barristers who have completed 25 or more hours of pro bono legal work.

Who will receive and process your personal data?

Your personal data will be received and processed by a law firm appointed by us who we task with collating the personal data of those candidates who meet the criteria.

You are not obliged to provide your personal data but if you do not, your name will not be included on the Pro Bono Recognition List.

What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The legal basis for processing your personal data is our legitimate interest in recognizing and promoting pro bono legal work.

Who will we share your personal data with?

We will not share your personal data with any third parties, except as necessary for the processing described above.

How long will we keep your personal data?

We will retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected.

What are your rights?

You have the right to request access to, correction or deletion of, your personal data. You may also have the right to object to or restrict our processing of your personal data, and the right to data portability.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.

How can you contact us?

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or our data protection practices, please contact us at contact@probonorecognitionlist.org.uk
